"We live food" sent out for the first time

NEW AGRICULTURAL NEWSLETTER INFORMS ABOUT THE LATEST NEWS ON CATTLE, PORK AND POULTRY

11.11.2020 – The new agricultural newsletter from deuka Tiernahrung Cremer provides regular information on the latest publications at www.deuka.de. "We live feed" - the name of the new newsletter - offers farmers and agricultural traders a selection of current, relevant and interesting articles on the feeding of cattle, pigs and poultry. But "Wir leben Futter" also contains the latest agricultural news and articles on jobs and careers.

"We live food" is sent out every six weeks, always on Friday mornings. Subscribers will receive the next issue in time for Christmas. If you have missed an issue, you can find all the issues already sent out in the new newsletter archive. Click here for the archive: www.deuka.de/unternehmen/agrar-newsletter

"The new newsletter is ideal for visitors who don't want to miss any of the articles on our website. In the newsletter you will find the most important articles of the last weeks clearly summarised
