Good health, joy and success to you

WE WISH YOU A HAPPY NEW YEAR 2021

It's done - an eventful and challenging year has come to an end. Whether it was the Corona pandemic, African swine fever (ASF) or the next drought: 2020 had some unpleasant surprises in store. In the new year 2021, things can only get better. We wish you and your animals a happy, successful new year! Stay healthy and look forward to many exciting articles and interesting reports on animal nutrition in the new year.
