The perfect dog snack for springtime adventures with your four-legged friend

DISCOVER SPRING WITH YOUR DOG AND THE NEW CANILAND FRÜHLINGSHAPPEN!

Düsseldorf - 04/03/2024 | Spring is coming and we have something special for you and your four-legged friend: the new caniland four seasons Frühlingshappen! The irresistible soft snacks continue the popular four seasons range and get your dog in the perfect mood for spring with their delicious flavours of lamb and rosemary potato.

The new caniland four seasons Frühlingshappen are not only delicious, but also make a positive contribution to the well-being of your four-legged friend. Thanks to their monoprotein recipe, they are a safe choice for dogs with special dietary requirements. Spring Bites are also suitable for dogs with intolerances or sensitive digestive systems.

Flavoured reward during training

And the best thing about it? The caniland four seasons Frühlingshappen are not only delicious, but also extremely useful during training. The irresistible flavour of lamb and rosemary potato makes them a desirable and motivating reward, whether you're practising new tricks or reinforcing commands you've already learnt.

Available now - in a limited quantity

The new caniland four seasons Frühlingshappen are now available in stores and invite you and your dog to enjoy the springtime to the full. Treat your four-legged friend to the best - with caniland.

The tasty continuation of the four-seasons series

After the successful autumn and winter snacks, the caniland Frühlingshappen continue the snack series. Each snack highlights the flavour nuances that characterise the respective season. And with summer just around the corner, the next dog snack is already waiting in the wings.
