New dog treat with the flavour of winter in every bite

WINTER SNACKS FROM THE CANILAND CHRISTMAS BAKERY

In the new caniland four seasons winter bites, the flavours of winter merge into a tasty dog treat. The wintry taste of baked apple and rice pudding, surrounded by the spicy flavours of cinnamon, cardamom and cloves with tempting honey - dogs can now get into the Christmas spirit and experience the winter season in a whole new way.

"The caniland four seasons winter snacks follow on seamlessly from the autumn snacks," says Michael Alvermann, Head of Product Development at caniland. "With seasonal ingredients, we are continuing the flavour journey of the caniland four seasons range with the perfect soft snack for the winter season."

The dog treat with a wintry flavour

Whether spicy apple, delicious rice pudding or tempting honey: the tantalising taste of winter in one bite is available with caniland four seasons winter bites. The wintry recipe is rounded off with a hint of cinnamon, cardamom and cloves.

"Limited Edition" - only while stocks last

It pays to be quick: all snacks in the caniland four seasons range are limited and only available for a limited time. This also applies to the winter snacks. So grab them quickly and order at www.deuka-companion.com/winterhappen. This way you can give your dog a winter treat even on cold days.

Purely vegetarian, well-tolerated reward

The gluten-free recipe of the snacks for dogs is both delicious and easily digestible. The treat contains no animal ingredients whatsoever. This makes it particularly suitable as a reward for sensitive dogs with digestive problems or those with intolerances. Finally, caniland four seasons winter snacks are free from preservatives.
